CHRISTMAS BROCHURE

LONDON'S CABARET & VARIETY CLUB

ABOUT US

Found down the same little side street used in the opening sequences of 'Harry Potter' and located a moments' walk from Leicester Square is London's Hidden Gem, The Phoenix Arts Club.

Celebrating thirty years of entertaining entertainers, The Phoenix is the west end's multi-award-winning, independently owned and operated entertainment club. Steeped in history, The Phoenix was the original dressing and rehearsal rooms of The Phoenix Theatre where Laurence Olivier made his debut in the 1930s in "Private Lives" with Noel Coward & Gertrude Lawrence. If only the walls could speak!

As seen on Netflix's The Crown, BBC's Strictly Come Dancing & The Apprentice as well as Anthony Bordain's The Layover.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to get in touch with our Events Team at events@phoenixartsclub.com

Oli Barrett's Christmas Party 2024 - Standing 200 Capacity
"One of the best Christmas parties in London" City AM

SOHOHO

One of the best Christmas parties in London took place last night at the Phoenix Arts Club, hosted as it is each year by the absurdly well-connected Oli Barrett and his chum Michael Acton Smith, the founder of meditation company Calm. Mindfulness was off the menu, however, as revellers crammed a venue deliberately bigger than last year's as 2023's bash ended up spilling into the streets and taking over a neighbouring restaurant. What started in a pub seven years ago now attracts an eclectic mix of corporate titans, creatives, writers, investors, movers and shakers - all of whom could be seen singing around the piano in the party's traditional Christmas sing-along. Perhaps a bit of meditation could be just the ticket this morning.

Immersive Entertainment x 130 Guests

A man dressed as Father Christmas, wearing a red suit with white fur trim and a red hat with white pom-poms, is singing into a microphone. He has a white beard and glasses. The background is dark with warm, golden lights and a statue of a woman in a swimsuit. To the right, there are red and white snowflake decorations.
