THE THEATRICAL MEMBERS CLUB

OUR STORY

The Phoenix Arts Club has been a beloved home away from home for workers in the creative arts for over thirty-five years.

Fiercely independent and community run, by day our venue is a rehearsal space and Creative Hub for some of the biggest west end shows. By night, eclectic cabaret and variety shows take to the stage entertaining 100,000 visitors a year!

And, of course, we're famous for our late-night frolics...

Those with a watchful eye will recognise The Club from its many appearances in TV & Film including The Apprentice, Britain's Got Talent, Sky One's Hit Show Temple, Anthony Bordain's The Layover; as Dolly Parton's London living room, and most recently as the The Ritz's WW2 Bohemian Hideout in Netflix's The Crown.

Become a Member today and join in on the theatrics. Cheers!

The HOUSE RULES

1. Please respect members' privacy and refrain from making any unsolicited requests or taking any photographs.

2. Please ask a member of staff before moving furniture.

As Maurice would say, "Don't touch the props, leave the props alone!".
Imagine descending in your bubble and someone has moved the Grimmerie...

3. Our food is delicious, and our bar well stocked so please do not consume food or drink sourced from elsewhere.

4. Our Club may temporarily close for filming and private functions. Members are encouraged to check the events page online for updates.

5. Chewing gum is strictly prohibited within the Club premises at all times.

6. Upon exiting the Club, please show consideration for our neighbours.

Apart from that, feel free to let loose - anything goes!
